OPPOSING FORCES ON GUADALCANAL IN TERRIFIC BATTLES

SUPERIOR ENEMY FORCES OF SHIPS, PLANES AND MEN MOBILIZING

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (P)—American and Japanese forces squared off today for another furious round in the spreading fight for the Solomons after a series of terrific land battles bled the enemy heavily of men and equipment.

While United States air and ground forces fought savagely to hold the Guadalcanal airbase, the superior force of the Southwest Pacific appeared to be surging toward 400 miles northeast of the turbulent islands.

Superior numbers of enemy ships, planes and men were reported mobilizing at the approach to American bases in the New Hebrides and Fiji Islands, whence they could strike at Allied communication lines to Australia.

The navy reported no new details of warship activities in the Pacific last night, but Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Allied bombers from Australia raided the enemy ships in the Rabaul harbor of New Britain and splashing the Japanese base at Buka in the Northern Solomons with explosive.

One of the bomb hits at Rabaul, more than 600 miles northwest of Guadalcanal, caused an explosion on a warship, MacArthur's communiqué asserted today (Australia time), and another set an unidentified vessel afire. The assault on Buka's airbase and buildings destroyed the enemy fires visible 80 miles away.

Australian ground troops in New Guinea continued to press the Japanese back toward their north coast invasion base.

The navy gave no indication that a Japanese warship was near in the Solomons struggle. The all-out assault which started Oct. 22 tapered off Sunday to what the navy communiqué termed "small scale thrusts" at the American positions on Guadalcanal.

CENTRAL TEXAS METHODISTS WILL MEET IN CISCO

Methodists in the Central Texas Conference, of which the Corsicana district is a part, are making arrangements to attend the annual conference that will be held in Cisco next month. The conference will open Thursday night, Nov. 5th, at First Church, Cisco, and will run through Sunday.

Committees that carry on the various phases of the conference work will meet Thursday and plan to finish most of the committee work before the conference opens that night. The conference was originally scheduled to meet in Waco but on account of crowded hotel accommodations was shifted to Cisco.

The Cisco district is headed by Dr. Roy Langston, one time pastor of First Church, Corsicana, and First Church, Cisco, where the conference will be held, has as its pastor, a former Corsicana boy, Rev. Leslie Seymour.

Bishop Ivan E. Holt will preside over the conference, which will have many important church matters before it, this being the first meeting of the conference since the present war started. This matter of reducing the number of districts in the conference, which was to have been one of the leading questions to come before the conference, will probably not recur much.

Another commission will report on the question of changing the date for the annual conference. There has been some effort made to hold the conference nearer the summer period rather than in the fall.

The Corsicana district, composed of some 25 churches and 40 churches, will be led by District Superintendent R. Otis Sory. The churches are busy closing up the year's work, with Sunday being the final Sunday. There is supposed to be some 25 lay delegates from the Corsicana district.

RITES WEDNESDAY FOR F. H. TAYLOR, RESIDENT OF ROANE

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Corley Funeral Chapel for Finis Taylor, 64, of Roane, who died Tuesday at the P. and S. Hospital. Interment was in the Kirk cemetery near Coolidge.

Surviving are his wife of Roane, one daughter, Mrs. Pete Gibson of Houston; two brothers, Luther Taylor, Hamilton, Ala., one sister, Mrs. Lily Davis, Hamilton, Ala.

The deceased had been a resident of the Roane community for nearly three years.

ADMINISTRATION OF SALARIES CONTROL BE DECENTRALIZED

WAGE-HOUR DIVISION FIELD OFFICES TO AID IN CONTROL PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (P)—The treasury and war labor board promised swift action today on their joint task of stabilizing wages and salaries, and a treasury official made the point that raises for the average citizen are not necessarily out of the question.

John L. Sullivan, assistant secretary of the treasury, told a press conference discussion of the treasury's part that the program offered many opportunities for increases by promoting merit increases, etc., but that most of these would have to be decided individually by the internal revenue commission.

"When in doubt," he said, "better consult with the commission or some advisory revenue office."

Decentralized administrative machinery will be operating within 10 to 15 days, the War Labor Board said, to handle its part of the work—control of wages and salaries up to $5,000 in the case of employees represented by a labor organization or those not employed in an executive, administrative or professional capacity.

The treasury has been assigned control of all other salaries. Sullivan said complete regulations covering most cases would be ready in about two weeks.

Sullivan said there was now no regulation which would prevent an employer from leaving one job for another of the same type, but added that this might be covered by future regulations.

He reported that seven regional offices of the Internal Revenue Bureau would be set up within ten days at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York. Additional offices—from two to six more—are to be announced later.

The war labor board announced it would be organized in co-operation with Secretary Perkins of the labor department to use the wage-hour division field offices to help administer the responsibilities of the board under the executive order of Oct. 3 and by James F. Byrnes, director of economic stabilization.

The primary function of the hundred odd field offices of the wage-hour division will be to answer specific questions of employers and employees as to the application of the executive order. The wage-hour division, when fully staffed, will be able to tell an individual employer, for instance, whether an individual or blanket wage increase in his plant must be applied to the whole plant or legal. Since some exemptions have been provided, it is expected many questions for specific interpretations will be asked.

Exemptions from the regulations, for example, for employees of eight or fewer workers, provided price ceilings would not be affected by any increases.

Other exemptions are "individual" exemptions, or reclassification within established salary rate ranges, operation of an established plan of salary increase, increased productivity under incentive plans, and operation of a trainee system or such other reasons or circumstances may be presented.

In applying for board approval, the employer must say whether price ceilings would be affected and whether the employees are represented by a union. Where price ceilings are involved, an opinion will be sought from the Office of Price Administration, and where there is no union, its officers will be notified and the union will have an opportunity to support or object to the application.

Chairman William H. Davis of the WLB's wage-hour division said the board's field offices were "moving as expeditiously as possible to prepare its field offices for the tremendous burden which they will have to carry under this arrangement." The wage-hour regional administrators were called to Washington today to study the board's plans, after which they will prepare their own organizations in the field.

The board's regional offices will be located in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Kansas City, Cleveland, Chicago, Dallas, Denver and San Francisco.

GERMANS REPORTED GAINING GROUND IN NEW CAUCASUS AREA

STALINGRAD GARRISON CONTINUES TO HOLD AGAINST VICIOUS ATTACK

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
MOSCOW, Oct. 29. (P)—Soviet military dispatches said today the Germans were gaining ground with a large-scale offensive in a new sector of the Central Caucasus, attacking the deep Red army defenses across the Nalchik plateau with troops, tanks, artillery and planes.

A shift in invasion pressure southwestward from the Mzok area was noted as Stalingrad's garrison held on in the 66th day of siege against German attempts to capitalize on a 200-yard gain in bloody fighting yesterday.

That advance was estimated by Red Star to have cost the enemy five battalions of troops killed or wounded (roughly 3,000 men) and 20 tanks wrecked or burned.

Ten times the Nazis with large troop and tank forces charged into a gap between two factories, fighting forward yard by yard until they finally were stalled, the army newspaper said, in a crossfire of machine guns camouflaged in the factory buildings.

The Nazi command struck against Nalchik, on a round-about route toward the Georgian military highway terminal at Ordzondok, after being blocked in the Mzok sector and thrown back in the area of Tuapse, far to the southwest.

Special ski and sled detachments were moved up by the Germans to engage the Russians in the fight for mountain slopes and passes deep in snow.

Germans who sought to follow up a slight gain in the battle of Stalingrad yesterday were repulsed, more than 100 falling fatally wounded by Russian fire.

Although the main Nazi line was recently reported driven from South Stalingrad to the steps outside the city, the communiqué spoke of a trench raid "in the southern part of Stalingrad" in which Red army troops destroyed seven blockhouses and several dugouts.

"Altogether," it said, "16 enemy planes were destroyed during the day."

AMERICAN FIGHTER PILOTS ADD MORE GERMAN WARPLANES

U. S. AND BRITISH AIR FORCES PURSUING THREE MAIN OBJECTIVES

By DON WHITEHEAD
CAIRO, Oct. 29. (P)—United States fighter pilots have added four more Messerschmitts to their steadily-rising toll of downed enemy planes in continuation of the punishing air offensive which supports the British Eighth Army's thrust against Marshal Rommel's desert lines, official reports said today.

American and British airmen apparently were sharing three missions—to wear down the axis strength already in North Africa, to keep the enemy from getting reinforcements across the Mediterranean and to back the British land forces grinding into the axis' Alamein line.

While air attacks smashed at enemy supply lines and bases even across the Mediterranean to Crete, British headquarters announced that the land forces had beaten off a surprise attack in the desert and inflicted further losses on the axis in a series of minor tank engagements yesterday.

United States medium bombers struck again behind Rommel's line, scoring direct hits on camps and depots, and starting many fires. Although many German fighters were seen in the battle area, the communiqué said, the bombers were not attacked.

Germans Try Avoid Fight.

The German fighters also sought to avoid engaging the United States fighters throughout the day, it added, but were brought to combat on at least two occasions. The four ME-109's shot down were the Americans' contribution to an allied total of nine enemy planes destroyed yesterday.

The first Messerschmitt was shot out of a formation of eight. The other three, downed inside three minutes, were caught by fighter planes conveying an RAF fighter-bomber flight.

In an effort to thwart what appeared to be Rommel's desperate attempts to get fuel and supplies, the RAF was reported to have sunk another enemy tanker in a torpedo-plane attack this afternoon. One tally listed the enemy's sea losses from an air attack at five merchantmen, including three tankers, in five days.

The British communiqué on the land offensive gave no further details beyond the statement that "fighting continued actively."

The axis air force was said to have remained on the defensive throughout yesterday as allied planes smashed at enemy landing fields and forward positions.

Allied Night Fighters.

Allied night fighters also carried out protective patrols over the front at night, the communiqué said, and shot down one Junkers 88 headquarters said.

Nine enemy fighters in all were reported destroyed during the day in the Mediterranean theater.

The attack on Crete, carried out by night, was said to have set fires at an enemy airbase.

Allied torpedo-carrying aircraft were credited with sinking a large enemy tanker bound for North Africa last night.

"Enemy activity over Malta was ineffective and reduced in scale," the bulletin said.

From the tone of the communiqué it seemed evident that the army of the Nile, bent on inflicting the maximum possible damage to the enemy at the moment, was maintaining the cautious but determined pace of its land offensive while subjecting Rommel's forces to a ceaseless aerial and artillery bombardment.

(A Reuters dispatch from Egypt said the Eighth Army had made no forward movement yesterday and that the scale of tank fighting was "nothing" as compared with the armored action of the previous day which itself was of limited scope.)

HALLOWE'EN PRANKS NOT BE TOLERATED, WARNS POLICE CHIEF

Masked men will not be allowed and customary 'Hallowe'en' pranks will not be tolerated this year, Bruce Nutt, police chief, pointed out Thursday morning while discussing the annual Hallowe'en Saturday.

Masked men will be allowed except those on small toys, he said, as it might be an opportunity for fifth columnists or spies, to cause damage if grown-ups were allowed to appear on the streets masked. There is a state law against masks and it is to be enforced Saturday night, the chief continued.

The police personnel will be doubled Saturday night, and no foolishness is to be allowed, it was pointed out, and the head of the police department made it plain that any malicious mischief or pranks will land those guilty in jail.

"By destroying anything you are helping the enemy. We are at war. Do not destroy or turn over trash cans, etc.," Chief Nutt stressed.

NUMBER SELECTEES SENT CAMP WOLTERS FOR INDUCTION

Selectees were sent from both Navarro county boards to undergo final army examinations Thursday. A number of whites were sent to Tyler Thursday for examination from Board No. 1, while one negro from Board 2 was sent to Tyler and several to Dallas.

A large contingent of selectees from Board 1 will be sent to Camp Wolters for induction Saturday morning.

Among those sent to Camp Wolters for induction Wednesday were Edwin J. Arnett, Clyde T. Chunn, Joe E. Blankenship, Morris A. Holloway and Ernest E. Davis.

USO DIRECTOR—Pat H. Ramsey (above) has resigned as general secretary of the Corsicana YMCA to accept a position as director-general of the Army-Navy USO for the Gulf Coast Area. His resignation will become effective Nov. 15. Ramsey was named general secretary of the local association in March 1935. He inaugurated an extensive re-habilitation program which resulted in vast improvements to the building. He also instituted a thorough physical recreational program for the youth of the county as well as city center. Ramsey will be stationed temporarily at San Antonio and Corpus Christi until permanent headquarters are established. His family will remain in Corsicana until early part of 1943. Practically all major improvements to the building during the past 25 years were carried out during his administration. He served four years longer than any secretary in the history of the local association. N. Suttle Roberts, president of the YMCA board of directors, said Thursday that no successor had been chosen. It will be necessary for the board to select a complete new staff.

MOUNTING PROTESTS AGAINST DIVIDED PACIFIC COMMAND

By JOHN H. WIGGINS
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (P)—Mounting protests against a divided Pacific command were heard today for climactic action by what was regarded in some quarters as an appeal from Gen. Douglas MacArthur for unified direction over the entire embattled area.

Answering a newspaper report attributing the two separate commands in the Pacific chiefly to "political Washington" and a "political Pacific," the 62-year old leader of United Nations forces in Australia disavowed any "political ambitions whatsoever."

"From his headquarters last night (Washington time), MacArthur declared that any contrary suggestion 'must be regarded as merely amiable gestures of goodwill dictated by friendship.'

"I am a soldier and I shall finish as one," he said. "The only hope and ambition I have in the world is for victory for our cause in the war."

ACTION IN EGYPT HAS REACHED POINT WHERE BATTLE OF TANKS MAY BE EXPECTED MOMENTARILY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
LONDON, Oct. 29. (P)—Flamboyant British offensive in the Egyptian desert has reached the point where one would expect it to develop into a battle of tanks. For the outcome of the conflict is likely to turn on these steel monsters.

Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's tactics against the axis indicate that this is exactly the position he is trying to bring about. The wedges which he has driven into Field Marshal Rommel's strongly fortified line are calculated to maneuver the German into flanking his panzer forces into the melee to prevent a complete breakthrough.

The development would bring axis tanks up against destructive British artillery and anti-tank gun fire.

Actually this is what happened Tuesday, but Rommel withdrew his armored units after they had suffered considerable losses.

Thus far the British Eighth army has been up against the necessity of cracking Rommel's line with frontal assault by infantry, airplanes and artillery. It would be courting disaster for the British tank corps to send them against such fortified positions at the outset.

Such a frontal attack is one of the most difficult operations in war.

It also is likely to be one of the bloodiest and I believe we must be prepared to learn that the present offensive has been no exception to the rule. The attacking forces indeed would be fortunate if casualties were moderate.

Allied Road Tough.

The allied road to victory through the axis fortified positions and minefields is a tough one. The fact that the advance has been slow does not necessarily mean that it has not been successful. Certainly it has been moving forward steadily through traps which the wily Rommel has laid among the ridges and dunes of this desolate region.

In trying to gauge the progress of such an offensive it must be borne in mind that the drive is laid out in stages and worked on a railway schedule.

FARM SENATORS PROFESS ANGER IN PRICE CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (P)—A three-pronged investigation by the Senate Agriculture committee of the administration of the price control act was proposed in the senate today by Senators Gillette (D-Iowa) and Reed (R-Kans.).

The two senators introduced a resolution calling on the committee to make a full and complete continuing study and investigation of the maximum prices fixed on agricultural commodities, the payment of subsidies and the operations of the commodity credit corp. in maintaining minimum minimum prices on farm products.

The resolution was an outgrowth of an attack made by senate farm bloc members on the action of the CPA and the department of agriculture in carrying out a directive by President Roosevelt to calculate government benefit payments as a part of crop returns to farmers in fixing agricultural price ceilings.

Gillette charged in a statement that farm price ceilings in some instances were being fixed at only 60 per cent of parity, whereas congress had stipulated that they should not go below that point. Parity is a price level calculated to give farmers purchasing power equal to that of a past favorable period, usually 1909-14.

Some farm state senators termed the administration of the price control law "high-handed and illegal."

Their Main Kick.

They rained their guns on an interpretation of the law inserted in the Congressional Record by Senator Brown (D-Mich.) under which prices of eggs, chicken, butter, cheese, potatoes and flour were frozen, and on a projected program of subsidies which Senator Reed (R-Kans.) said the administration had in mind.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) told reporters Economic Director James F. Byrnes, Price Administrator Leon Henderson and Agriculture Secretary Claude Wickard had ignored a provision of the law prohibiting fixing of farm price ceilings below parity.

Henderson told the committee Monday he was not deviating from the law and would pursue his course unless his head was "knocked off" or he was "gunned out of my job."

Aiken said Henderson and his associates were "a lawless mob" and that the "lawless mob" under which benefit payments received by farmers, and subsidies as well, might be used to effect artificial parties.

IMPORTANT GENERAL ELECTION TUESDAY; FIVE AMENDMENTS

Election supplies are being delivered this week to the judges for the general election, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Little interest is being taken in the approaching balloting if absentee ballot requests are to be taken into consideration, although it is generally regarded that few people are away from home at the present time due to war and other conditions.

Citizens are urged to vote in the general election, the representative Navarre county in party affairs two years hence will be determined by the number of votes cast Tuesday.

There are five amendments on the official ballot this year, including the Democratic party, Republican party, People's Unity party, headed by Charles Lavergne Somerville, Independent party, and one blank column.

A full slate is seen in the Democratic party. The Republicans have only a part of a state ticket, with candidates appearing for the office of executive, auditor, commissioner of agriculture, the People's Unity party has candidates for governor, attorney general, railroad commissioner, state controller, commissioner of the general land office, state treasurer, and agricultural commissioner. The Independent ticket has no candidates listed.

There are five proposed amendments to the State Constitution to be voted on Tuesday.

Lt. J. H. Buie Shot Down Jap Zeros Recently

AN ADVANCED BASE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC, Oct. 18. (Delayed)—(P)—bomber piloted by Lieut. J. H. Buie, Corsicana, Texas, and U. S. O'Brien, Hennessey, Okla., shot down two Jap Zeros and scored a hit on a transport in the flaming skies of the Solomons yesterday.

A Jap battleship was damaged by three bomb hits from another plane and another scored hits on a transport as Flying Fortress attacked five transports and a dozen more warships.

Communications on Guadalcanal said today that three Japanese transports are beached and burning furiously.

Bomber pilots say their crews shot down six of a dozen Jap Zeros attacking them yesterday.

VETERAN REPORTER GIVES EYEWITNESS ACCOUNT FIGHTING

TELLS OF TANK BATTLE NOW SWEEPING OVER DESERT WITH GERMANS

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—Frank L. Martin, a veteran of the Eastern front, who has been in the Mediterranean since early this year, watched the methodical British attack on the Egyptian front in the new offensive. A native of Columbus, Mo., Martin is a graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism.)

By FRANK L. MARTIN
WITH AN ATTACKING BRITISH TANK UNIT ON THE ALAMEIN BATTLEFRONT, Oct. 27.—The number of German tanks now sweeping over the desert floor, for the Germans brought up their armor yesterday afternoon in an effort to block the forward movement of the British.

Since the attack still is in full swing, little information is available, but it is known that many enemy tanks have been knocked out of action.

One good indication of how the battle is going came from the number of German and Italian tanks seen in the prisoner pens scattered behind our lines.

In the past few hours truck after truck has been bringing these men back from the battlefield, clearly and dazed from the fighting.

Besides tanks, the Germans have heavy 88 millimeter guns and some infantry in this sector trying to halt the allied push. Their armor come up to lock with the allies as night fell last (Monday) and continued through the moonlight and into daylight today.

(Dispatches from the African front since, however, have said that Tuesday's tank battle, the first heavy armored clashes of the offensive, had been launched Oct. 24, ended yesterday.)

During the Monday night tank battle, allied infantry wedged deeper into the enemy fortifications, taking prisoners—Germans and Italians—and numerous German tanks were pushed or "several" thousand yards.

TROOPS AND MARINES INFLECT HEAVY LOSS IN ISLAND FIGHTING

AMERICANS HEMMED IN SMALL AREA GUADALCANAL FIGHT DESPERATELY

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
U. S. Army troops and Marines, hemmed in a corridor only three miles long by three miles deep, were officially credited today with inflicting bloody losses on the Japanese at Guadalcanal Island, while elsewhere on the world's far-flung battlefronts the axis showed new strength in Egypt and Russia.

Japanese forces in overwhelming numbers were reported crowding American defenders of the prize Guadalcanal air base on three sides, using heavy artillery and tanks.

Nevertheless, the Navy in Washington gave this heartening account of the struggle since the Japanese invaders began their all-out land offensive seven days ago:

"Enemy losses in men and equipment in troop actions on the island since Oct. 22 have been very heavy as compared to our own."

Lately, the Navy said, the Japanese assault has tapered down to "small scale thrusts," indicating that the enemy was either waiting for reinforcements or had been stung to discouragement by the fierce American defense fire.

In other key theaters, these were the high spots:

Egypt—Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's six-day-old offensive to drive the axis out of North Africa appeared to be hitting stiffer opposition after British shock troops had broken gaps in the enemy's forward defense wall on the El Alamein line, 80 miles west of Alexandria.

British headquarters failed to note any new gains and gave the following terse description of the desert battle:

"During the night of Oct. 27-28, the enemy counterattacked our positions and was beaten off."

"Yesterday there were some minor tank engagements in which damage was inflicted on the enemy."

"Fighting continues."

While the British communiqué indicated that Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel was striking back, Italian Field Headquarters stressed the fury of the British 8th army's assault.

"A bitter struggle which for several days has been fought on the El Alamein front of Egypt continues."

MACARTHUR HAS NO AMBITIONS ALONG POLITICAL LINES

By C. YATES McDONALD CHIEF OF THE MACARTHUR HEADQUARTERS, Australia, Oct. 29. (P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who has been mentioned as possible presidential timber in the United States, declared today "that he had no political ambitions whatsoever" and said he planned to retire again if he survived the campaign.

"I started as a soldier and I shall finish as one," the supreme commander of Allied forces in the Southwest Pacific said in a statement. "The only hope and ambition in the world is for victory for our cause in the war. If I survive the war, I shall return to that retirement from which this great struggle called me."

(In Sydney Australia's prime minister, John Curtin, made this statement. "It is a matter for reflection that so great and inspiring a leader should be obliged to stress the obvious. All I can add is that nations and peoples everywhere know him but one great duty: that is to organize the nation so that morally and with every physical factor it can give complete, unequivocal backing to a commander in whose capacity and person it has wholehearted confidence."

It was his first reference to various suggestions in the United States that he might be a likely candidate for the presidency in 1944 or later.

The general's disavowal of political ambition was prefaced by the observation:

"I have noted the statement quoted in morning newspapers from the Christian Science Monitor's Washington correspondent that 'political Washington' was largely responsible for the reports that the Australian war effort was not being pushed as it should be."

"No nation in the world is making a more supreme war effort than Australia," he said. "It is rapidly gearing to full capacity, its resources are relatively meager, but it is utilizing them to the utmost. Its effort is universal and embraces equally all classes and all parties."

HOSPITALITY CENTER FOR SERVICE MEN TO OPEN NOVEMBER 6

The Service Men's Hospitality Center will open Friday night, November 6, according to announcement by officers of the Corsicana Recreation Board, sponsoring organization.

The center which is located in the Louis E. Pack King building on South Beaton Street will be open to all service men. The use of the building was made possible by the generosity of Mrs. King who is noted in Corsicana for her civic interest in while projects in her "home town."

Corsicana citizens will be invited to take the Center Friday night during an open house and aviation cadets of Air Activities will be special guests Saturday night.

The center will be headed by Lloyd Kerr and Mrs. Wilbur Wright, co-chairmen of the program committee and their assistants, to be given both nights.

Express Appreciation.

Work on the furnishings and conditioning of the building has been going on for several weeks and Mrs. W. K. Steele, chairman of the board, expressed her appreciation to the carpenters and painters who gave their time. Carpenters who have worked included Leroy Williams, Lewis Foster, George Harvin, Gene Jenkins, M. Squires, Collins, Ficklin and Bill Davis. Painters include Adolf Levermann, Gordon Collins, Joe Redders, Clyde Stubbs, W. E. Wilcox and Charles Moss. Additional help was given by anyone wishing to volunteer his services. He is asked to contact Mrs. Steele. Gene Hellum has aided in hauling.

Hottelness On Duty.

Mrs. John Corley, chairman of the furnishings committee, has announced that all furnishings for the building have been obtained and are in readiness for use. Hostesses will be on duty at the Center which is planned to meet the needs of service men during their spare time.

Those wishing to contribute something to the project will be interested to know that magazine subscriptions are desired in order that the latest magazines may be available to the boys.

The Recreation Board will meet at the Center on Monday night, Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock to complete plans for the opening. Mrs. Steele announced. All board members are urged to be present.

U. S. Fighters Meet Success.

CAIRO, Oct. 29. (P)—Four more Messerschmitt-109 fighters have been shot down by United States fighters in continuing large-scale operations against the enemy over the Egyptian battle line, a United States communiqué announced today.

The enemy planes were knocked out in dog fights, the war bulletin said, although the German flyers tried to avoid combat with the United States airmen throughout yesterday, during which repeated attacks were carried out against axis ground and aerial targets.

General Information Gasoline Rationing

(To clear up confusion concerning the nationwide mileage rationing program, the following is the first of three articles in which points of the program are discussed by Mark McGee, State OPA Director.)

PORT WORTH, Oct. 29.—(Spl.)—State OPA Director Mark McGee today issued the following statement on the mileage rationing program:

When the Baruch Rubber Committee reported to the President and the nation on September 10, the following program was recommended to keep the country's passenger cars rolling:

1. Immediate institution of a tire replacement and recapping program through the allocation of reclaimed rubber for that purpose.
2. Nationwide gasoline rationing to hold the average annual mileage to 5,000 miles.
3. Prompt and strict enforcement of a nationwide speed limit not exceeding 35 miles an hour for private passenger cars and trucks.
4. Compulsory periodic tire inspection.
5. A voluntary interim tire conservation program until gasoline rationing can be instituted.

These recommendations followed discovery of the following facts:

Our stockpile of natural rubber is 378,000 tons as of July 1, 1942. It is estimated that our imports from July 1, 1942, to January 1, 1944, will be about 53,000 tons. The stockpile of scrap rubber as reported by the President will yield 350,000 tons of reclaimed rubber this year. The projected production of synthetic rubber for 1944 is 1,100,000 tons—if nothing hampers the construction program and the production program.

Military Requirements.

The estimated military requirements for 1943 are 842,000 tons. The annual over-all consumption of rubber before the war was around 600,000 tons.

The tires on our automobiles represent a stockpile of some 1,000,000 tons of rubber, but tires on civilian cars are wearing down at a rate eight times greater than they are being replaced. If this rate continues, by far the larger number of cars will be off the road next year, and in 1944 there will be an all but complete collapse of the 27 million passenger cars in America.

Tires on the nation's cars represent a priceless reserve which we must conserve.

To Conserve Tires.

Several positive steps have already been taken to conserve tires. Reduction of speed limits to 35 miles per hour is one positive step which will help guarantee conservation of tires, but does not solve the whole problem. Sale of used, excess tires to the government is another vital part of the conservation program. This action is aimed at building a great national stockpile of used tires and recappable carcasses for rationing to auto owners on the basic need.

The method for selling tires to the government has been designed for the utmost in simplicity for the car owner. The Railway Express Agency has been designated to collect the tires and transport them to the warehouses. Each auto owner is asked to keep his five tires and to sell or give the rest to the government, regardless of their condition.

To sell his excess tires to the government, the individual has only to telephone or write the Railway Express Agency office nearest his home and a truck will be sent to pick up the tires. The owner will be given a receipt for the tires and will receive his check, or war bonds and stamps if he desired, in payment from the government shortly after the tires have been inspected at the warehouse for official determination of their value. In areas where the Railway Express Agency does not maintain pickup service, the tire owner may take his idle tires to the Agency office, usually located in the nearest railroad station.

Government Offers Market.

Although mileage rationing eligibility will put a limit only on the number of casings for each car, the government is offering a market for tubes as well. Under the restriction orders now in effect, this is the only market in which consumers with usable excess tires may sell. Truck and motorcycle tires and tubes also will be purchased by the government if offered, although there is no compulsion of their sale under mileage rationing. Passenger car owners who are found to have more than five casings in their possession for each car they own will be denied basic "A" mileage rationing books. Mounted trailer tires are NOT considered excess tires under the mileage rationing eligibility rules.

Tied in with the mileage rationing program is the plan for compulsory, periodic inspection of tires. Under the inspection plan, neither private passenger automobiles nor commercial vehicles will be certified for continued operation when their tires need repairs or when mechanical faults are causing unnecessary tire wear.

To get the staff of inspectors necessary to perform the periodic examinations called for under the plan, OPA has called upon local war price and rationing boards to appoint all competent tire men of good repute in their communities. Original inspection for all passenger cars must be made between December 1 of this year and January 31, 1943. Commercial vehicle inspection starts November 15.

Effective Nov. 22

After the initial inspection, passenger car owners who get the minimum ration of gasoline the basic "A" book—under the nationwide mileage rationing program which becomes effective November 22, will be required to get their tires inspected every four months at official OPA inspection stations. The same requirement applies to those who hold only the "D" mileage rationing book for motorcycles. Persons who get ration books permitting them to drive greater distances in a given period, must get inspection every two months. Commercial vehicle tires must be inspected every two months or every 5,000 miles, whichever comes first.

All passenger car owners will have record cards which they must present for the inspector to fill out at the time he makes his periodic examination. The cards, a part of the original mileage application form, will be detached by the local war price and rationing boards and put into the vehicle owner's hands when his ration book is issued.

Must Keep Record.

An inspector's signature in each period will be required before a vehicle may continue in operation. Vehicle owners who do not have their inspection records up to date will not be eligible either for tires or for renewal of mileage ration books.

Without removing tires from wheels, the inspector will check for cuts, abrasions, breaks, blisters and other conditions requiring repair. The inspector will also look for evidence of improperly balanced or misaligned wheels, faulty brakes,

REVISED LIST OF FARM MACHINERY FOR REGISTRATION

Chairman Sam L. Garrett, of the Navarro County Farm Machinery and Rationing committee, announced today that he is in receipt of a revised list of farm machinery and equipment to be included in the inventory that dealers, distributors and manufacturers are required to file under Temporary Rationing Order A. These inventories are to be made as of October 31 and are to be filed with the County Farm Machinery Rationing Committee on or before November 19, 1942.

Mr. Garrett stated that the rationing committee does not yet have a complete list of dealers, distributors and manufacturers in Navarro county, and since this revised list was necessary in compiling the October 31 inventory, all such persons are urged to immediately contact him at the AAA office so that the list may be delivered or mailed for his use before the deadline.

bent rims and other mechanical faults that cause excessive or spotted tire wear. If repairs or corrections are necessary, the inspector will recommend them and will not sign the inspection record card (or certificate of war necessity for commercial vehicles) until they have been made, except where the recommendation is for a recapping or replacement.

For inspections where no tires are removed from wheels or rims, a fee of not more than 25 cents per vehicle may be charged.

When a tire has become unfit for recapping through no fault of the owner—old age, stretching, unavoidable blowouts—the inspector may recommend a replacement. If the tire is found to be suitable for recapping, the inspector will fill out the appropriate part of a form on which the owner will apply immediately to his local board for a recapping service.

(Tomorrow State OPA Director Mark McGee will discuss more details of the mileage rationing program.)

A Message To Every Driver

You can save rubber and help win the war if you will do these things:

1. Drive only when absolutely necessary.
2. Keep under 35 miles an hour.
3. Keep your tires properly inflated.
4. Have them inspected regularly.
5. Share your car with others.

BROTHER CORSICANA WOMAN BE BURIED IN SAN ANTONIO FRIDAY

Funeral services for Walter Bodemann, 62, Dallas, who died Wednesday in a Dallas hospital, will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the St. Cecilia Catholic church in San Antonio with burial in St. Mary's cemetery in San Antonio.

A native of Boerne, Kendall county, Bodemann resided in San Antonio before moving to Dallas 23 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Edwards, Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Emy Barth, Corsicana, and Miss Little Bodemann, San Antonio; a brother, Alfred Bodemann, San Antonio, and a granddaughter.

REP. L. A. JOHNSON FELICITATES FATHER ON SONS' ACTIONS

Several days ago the Daily Sun carried an item relative to the fact that A. S. Metcalf of Corsicana had four sons in the armed service of the United States. This item caught the eye of Congressman Luther A. Johnson in Washington, and he wrote Mr. Metcalf as follows:

"I have just read in the Corsicana Sun that you have four sons and all of them are now in the army of the United States, fighting for the flag of their country.

"Let me congratulate you upon the fine patriotism and thrill of Americanism that you must feel to be the father of four sons who are risking their lives to win this awful war.

"May God bless and keep them."

In this connection Mr. Metcalf stated that he not only has four sons in the armed services, but has two sons-in-law and four nephews also in the service. And he has a daughter in Washington holding down a position that is an aid to the war effort.

Mr. Metcalf was the driver of a truck for the Corsicana Steam Laundry and Cleaning Company here for many years but retired some time ago, turning his job over to one of his sons, but when this son resigned to enter the army Mr. Metcalf came out of retirement and took his old position and says he will carry on for the duration and until his sons return.

ROUTINE MATTERS UNDER DISCUSSION CHAMBER DIRECTORS

Discussion of industrial activities and reorganization of the transportation committee, announced that his committee would consider certain railroad transportation problems at a pending meeting. The committee will also confer with railroad officials.

Ben L. Carlisle, chairman of the transportation committee, announced that his committee would consider certain railroad transportation problems at a pending meeting. The committee will also confer with railroad officials.

The show was sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce which financed a cash prize and other awards.

The director was informed that a full-scale tin can salvage campaign would be launched in Corsicana soon. Harold J. Bryant, representative of the War Production Board, was introduced. Details of the campaign will be announced later.

Robert C. Dillard, manager, reported on the recent labor concentration camp established during the cotton picking season at the Corsicana fair grounds. He stated that approximately 400 transient Mexican laborers passed through the camp and aided cotton farmers in harvesting their crops.

F. H. Harvey, Jr., Chamber of Commerce president, presided.

General Information Rationing Program

General information concerning the rationing program in Navarro County was issued today by Wilbur A. Wright, chairman of the local war price and rationing board. Instructions are briefed as follows:

Coffee: Rationing begins Nov. 28. Coupons of present War Ration Book will be used, beginning with stamp No. 28.

Gasoline: Car owners with more than five tires per vehicle must sell these extra tires to the government by Nov. 22, to be eligible for gasoline rationing book. Tires can be disposed of by delivering them to the Railway Express Agency. Sellers will receive either government checks or war stamps.

New Ration Book: A new all-purpose rationing book will be issued during the early part of 1943, containing 192 coupons for the rationing of many items.

News for Women: A sharp reduction in the price of Nylon hosiery has gone into effect. Women are advised not to buy Nylon unless knit, gauge, grade and new price ceilings are clearly posted. Retailers are cautioned to post prices conspicuously. Customers cannot be compelled to buy extra for hosiery gift wrappings for Christmas.

Holiday news: New ceiling prices on seasonal holiday foods will soon be announced. This includes such items as mince meat, plum pudding, fruit cakes, and etc.

Pending information: Leon Henderson will broadcast to rationing boards and the general citizenship weekly, beginning Nov. 5, at 6:30 p. m. (EWT), on the over-all rationing program.

Reports For Duty: Verne J. Gaines, of Corsicana, has reported for duty the Reception Center, Camp Beauregard, La., and is now in the armed forces of the United States.

ASTORIA SURVIVOR — Leon M. Stough, 20, gunners mate, second class, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stough, Corsicana, Route No. 1, recently returned to San Francisco for assignment after a furlough spent with his parents.

Stough was aboard the heavy cruiser Astoria when it was sunk by the Japanese off Guadalcanal. He spent ten hours in the water and saved the life of a shipmate by pulling him onto a rubber mattress. Stough also participated in the battle of the Coral Sea and Midway. He had been aboard the Astoria two years. The cruiser was in the battle of Guadalcanal three days before sunk. Stough enlisted in the Navy July 5, 1940. He is a graduate of the Corsicana Junior high school. He also has two brothers in the service, W. A. Stough, machinist in the Army Air Corps, Santa Monica, Calif., and Sgt. Wm. L. Stough, 36th division, Camp Edwards, Mass. (Photo Tessie Dickson Studio.)

Appreciation For Painters Working Hospitality Center

Officials of the Service Men's Hospitality Center, that is now being established in Corsicana, wish to thank publicly the following painters, who have given freely of their services during the past days toward the furtherance of this project: Adolph Levermann, Gordon Collins, Joe Reiders and Clyde Stubbs.

If there are other painters who are willing to donate a few hours' work for a worthwhile cause, they are urged to communicate at once with Mrs. W. K. Steele, chairman, of the recreation board, or Mrs. John Corley, chairman of the room committee.

Those in charge of the center are working night and day to ward its establishment, and hope to announce the formal opening at an early date.

With the whole-hearted co-operation of the local citizenry, the project will soon become a reality, and one of which all Corsicana will be justly proud.

Richland Woman Has Received Promotion

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. ## MILITARY MARRIAGES MAKE MATING AFRESH A PROBLEM*

International Matches Multiply—The Establishment of a Home Greatest Event in Young Person's Life—Finding the Christian Basis For Marriage

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Canadian soldiers in Great Britain, and American soldiers in Ireland and Australia, are marrying local girls at such a rate that in some places the military authorities are imposing restrictions. Home girls are openly expressing concern. The widespread discussion of the subject reveals how vital and practical a problem marriage is. As a public issue it transcends in importance all questions of rationing and employment. While an individual matter, it has the broadest social significance. There are racial implications in the marriage of soldiers abroad that may be all to the good.

Cynical aphorisms abound concerning the benefits of the single estate; but God made woman for man and man for woman, and neither can have a full and symmetrical life without the other. Every bachelor and every old maid represents a tragic failure somewhere.

A Bachelor's Story

I once knew a brilliant young man, gifted socially and with literary talent of a high order. While an individual matter, life unhampered by family care and responsibilities. As an eligible bachelor and an attractive personality, he was in great demand at dinners and other social occasions. He was admitted to the selectest social circles. It was a rare evening when he did not have to wear a dinner coat.

For years he rode high. But gradually he came to be an eligible bachelor, and became a tiresome aging man with many crochets, all unknown to himself. His hair grew thin, his manners brusque and his talk garrulous.

In time, he became a seeker after the social engagements that once had sought him. He never accomplished the great writing of which he had once dreamed. He became a putterer and a dilettante.

The aim of a bachelor, he avowed to the realization that he was an old man, and a lonely one. He had no home to welcome him; he lived in a club. To children he was a stranger. He died, his passing left scarcely a ripple. He had missed the prizes of life.

Shortly after his death I heard of a somewhat corresponding story of a Washington woman who had grown old in government service. In conversation with a group of fellow workers, young women who were discussing marriage, she said bitterly, "I'd marry Satan himself if he were to ask me."

That cynical remark concerning marriage, revealed the wisdom of riper years which youth overlooks. All of us know instances of girls, belles besought, who turned down suitors after suitors until no more remained. They, too, missed the prize of life, often because of frivolous selfishness.

DR. SNEED GOING INTO AIR CORPS AS MEDICAL CAPTAIN

Dr. William R. Sneed has received orders to report to the commanding officer of Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La., as a captain in the United States Army Air Forces Medical Corps, Nov. 9. The orders are from the adjutant general's office.

Capt. Sneed, a graduate of Wortham High School and Trinity University, Waco, Texas, finished his medical education at Tulane University, New Orleans, in 1922, and came to Corsicana in 1924 to engage in general practice and surgery. He became associated with the Navarro Clinic when it was established in 1927.

Capt. Sneed is the son of Mrs. W. Sneed of Wortham and the late Dr. K. W. Sneed, pioneer physician of that area.

Mrs. Sneed and little daughter will go to Shreveport with Captain Sneed.

Former Rice Teacher Has State Position

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (Special)—Mrs. Louise B. Rogers of Austin has accepted a position with the State Department of Public Welfare as Senior Field Worker and will assume her duties in the Seguin area office on Oct. 28. She is a graduate of Corsicana High School and Ward-Belmont, Nashville, Tennessee. She also attended C. I. A. Denton. Prior to her selection by the welfare department through a merit system examination she was a teacher in Rice.

Rep. Pheiffer in Criticism News. Censorship Plan

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP)—Representative William T. Pheiffer, (R-N.Y.), in an open letter to the "New York Times," said today that the country needed a change in public practice involving our Navy. The administration must put all the cards on the table face up.

"Washington has always been ready to criticize the newspapers and the press services for their handling of the news," he said. "On the other hand, if the newspapers attempt to criticize the handling of the news or the censorship they are immediately branded as 'defeatist,' 'fifth columnist,' or 'typewriter strategists.'"

"As a matter of fact, the mistakes that the newspapers have made have been due largely to the concealment of information and the peddling of false information by the government authorities who have shown an alarming distrust of the very agencies that can best promote the winning of the war."

Expansion Program American Well Due War Work Contracts

Construction of two new steel structure fireproof buildings is to be made in an expansion program due to war work at the American Well and Prospecting Company, J. E. Rittersbacher, president, revealed Monday afternoon. One of the buildings is now under construction and the building will be rushed as fast as materials are procured.

The Poet of the People

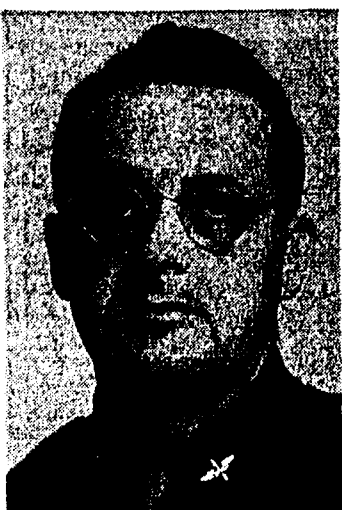

"ME, TOO!"

Was ever so eager a child upon earth.Reaching for all things, regardless of worth?Wanting whatever she sees in the room—Picture, or ash tray, or duster or broom?Wanting to share in whatever we do.Ellen Elizabeth's shouting, "Me, too!"What is this curious feminine trait,Grabbing for trinkets both early and late?Grasping at sunbeams and reaching for stars?Stopping at nothing—not even cigars—Just let her gaze at an article
new?Ellen Elizabeth mutters, "Me too!"Wants to miss nothing she thinks may be had,Bitter or sweet, be it pleasant or sad.So often forgotten, so often left out.She wants to be sure that we know who's about.Whatever it may be we're planning to do.Ellen Elizabeth mutters, "Me too!"ONE WAY TO GET YOUR COFFEEBy SPOON RIVER SAM
Wide World Features.The borders sure are playing hot with all of us. Now there's trouble getting a saucer of coffee for breakfast.Human nature is queer, which explains most of the need for rationing.There's always a few amongst us that get panicky over shortages and scarcities.They stand the thought of sharing alike.So they've been going around gathering up coffee here and there and when they should have been collecting scrap metal.Well, I got a plan to put the dampers on such doings.Everybody knows who's got coffee stored up. (If the owner ain't bragging about it, the neighbors can smell it a mile off.)Well, heres' my anti-hearding plan. Let all the folks in the neighborhood that ain't got coffee go calling on Mrs. Hoarder, in a body, about 7 o'clock every morning—and yell for hot coffee.A feeling of remorse is guaranteed to set in on Mrs. Hoarder the minute all that blowing and sipping hits her ears.The good good points, seems to me. First, there's the leveling process—leveling her pile of coffee down to your own.Then, when it comes time to demand coffee on hand, she won't have to wrestle with her conscience but can blurt out that them fool neighbors have drank her out of house and home.Well, I figure, such gatherings will show you how awful everybody else looks before they get their morning eye opener.
It'll make you go home and appreciate your own spouse a lot more.or three days a week will be no real hardship, especially since fish and poultry are not considered meat in the rationing plan. The housewife who has chickens, ducks or other birds for the week-end dinner will usually find a neat left-over meal of some sort on the bones to use one day more.
Then with fish one day and eggs or cheese dishes on another, the drain on beef and pork supplies will be cut to half the week. There's no law against baked beans
with a few fingers of salt pork to flavor them.Sensible folk will find obeying the rationing rules
practically painless.OUR AIMSWhat the United States are striving for was recently well phrased by Rev. Curtis W. Reese, a Chicago
clergyman."I like to think," he said,
"of democracy in terms of the dream of a society in which every person shall count; in which all resources, including the abilities and achievements of the unusually competent, shall be devoted to the good of the whole people; in which liberty and security shall dwell with justice and peace; in which free men shall be bound together for the guaranty of freedom for all men. That is a great dream, in the pursuit of which we must never turn back, but toward which we must build a highway for all men everywhere."MEATLESS TUESDAYSThe Society of Restaurants, National Restaurant Association and other groups have concluded that the way to save meat is to save meat. Friday is already a meatless day for many families—some for religious reasons, others because there is always plenty of good, fresh fish in the markets on Fridays. So "meatless Fridays" would not decrease the present use of meat very much. Adding Tuesdays will probably make a real difference in the total.

night at the city hall.The meeting was called by officials of the Navarro county war

A. Wright, chairman, presided.The forum-type meeting stressed the necessity for accurate recording of tire serial numbers on gasoline application certificates. This is especially important as future gasoline rationing books will be issued according to corresponding serial numbers.Recommendations for new or those authorized by the board to

OUR FAILURES BEFORE
AMERICAN PEOPLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(AP)—

Wendell L. Willkie again has urged a second European front, and says that "if we continue to fail to deliver to our allies what they are entitled to expect of us or what we have promised them, our rejoinder of good-will will turn into one of resentment.""We owe them more than boasts and broken promises," Willkie told a nationwide radio audience last night in an unconsored report of his recent journey to the Middle East, Russia and China.The 1940 Republican presidential candidate declared that the war's record thus far was not such as to inspire "any sublime faith in the infallibility of our military and naval experts." He termed "mis-directed censorship" the idea that non-military experts or persons not connected with the government should not make suggestions about conducting the war—"military, industrial, economic or political.""Let's have no more of this nonsense," he declared in the speech carried by the four major networks. "Military experts as well as our leaders, must be constantly exposed to democracy's greatest driving power—the whip-lash of public opinion, developed from honest, free discussion."Must Establish Second Front.
"We and our allies must establish a second fighting front in Europe," Willkie said. "I also hope that shortly we can put the considerable force in India to aggressive use in an all-out attack on Burma, as General Wavell has urged. Thus we will relieve the pressure of our enemies on China and Russia, our superb fighting allies."Willkie asserted that America was "also punching holes in our reservoir of good-will every day by failing to define clearly our war aims," and continued:"Besides giving our allies in Asia and Eastern Europe something to fight with, we have got to give them assurance of what we are fighting for. The 200,000, 600 people of Russia and the 450,
000,000 people of China—people like you and me—are bewildered and anxious."Not Sure of Us.
"They know what they are fighting for. They are not so sure of us. Many of them have read the Atlantic charter. Rightly or wrongly, they are not satisfied.
They ask: 'What about a Pacific charter?' 'What about a world charter?'"He said leaders of America's allies and potential allies were proud, intelligent men who agreed substantially on a need of "abolishing imperialism, of liberating the peoples of the world, of making freedom a reality, instead of just a nice word."He mentioned the Shah of Iran, the prime minister of Turkey and the generalissimo of China and said the United States had failed consistently to send them representatives with authority to discuss problems "intelligently" and to take realistic steps toward their solution.He declared that no man of cabinet rank had been sent to Russia
on special mission "to talk to Mr.
Stalin," adding that it was the British prime minister who spoke primarily for this country on the last such mission.AIR CORPS OFFICER — ENID

Europe.

That was 25 years ago.

Today, at the Enid Flying School, Capt. Frederick C. T. Slauson is back on active service with the high-flying army air corps, doing his part again in his country's all-old, was owner-manager of a cannery, radio station and retail store in Corsicana, Texas, when he was returned to active duty.His military career began in June of 1917 when he was sent to the 1st Plattsburg Training Camp. He stayed there until September, then attended ground school at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology until December of 1917. He then transferred to flight training at Ellington Field, Texas, and completed his work at Hicks Field, Fort Worth, Texas, in September of 1918.A member of the American Legion and Beta Phi social fraternity, Captain Slauson took a refresher course at the officers' training school at Miami, Fla., when he was recalled to active duty in August.He is assistant director of post offered violent resistance," the fascist command said.

 "We destroyed several dozen more enemy tanks and have taken several hundred prisoners."
 The German high command likewise emphasized the weight of the British offensive, declaring:

 "Bitter fighting in Egypt increased in intensity of the fifth day of the defensive battle."
 "Despite extremely heavy attacks
 ...the enemy failed to gain success owing to the stiff resistance put up by German and Italian troops."

Dispatches from Cairo said the main test was yet to come and that Gen. Montgomery was apparently determined not to repeat the disastrous mistake of last June when the British surged ahead too rapidly and advanced into a deadly ambush of anti-tank guns.

Russian Sector.
 Russia—Adolf Hitler's Caucasus armies, in a sudden shift to a new sector, were reported attacking heavily with troops, tanks, artillery and planes against Soviet defenses on the Nalchik Plateau, 50 miles southwest of the old Mordok battle sector.

A Berlin broadcast said the Germans had already captured Nalchik, a mountain resort of 13,000 population on the northern slope of the Caucasus chain, only 60 miles from the important Georgian military highway to Tiflis.

A Nazi communique said German and Rumanian mountain troops
 "stormed the strongly fortified and stubbornly defended town of Nalchik," but did not claim its capture.

"Enemy forces bottled up northeast of Nalchik were wiped out or taken prisoner," the German commune said, claiming the "annihilation" of several Red army divisions in a four-day battle.

Hitler's headquarters said the German siege armies at Stalingrad beat off several Russian counter-attacks and then "gained more ground in a workers' settlement and industrial center" in the city's northern suburbs.

Attack Finally Stalled.
 Red Star said tank-led German troops attacked ten times, charging into a gap between two factories, and were finally stalled by a murderous crossfire of machine-guns after losing five battalions killed or wounded.

Soviet dispatches acknowledged that the Germans were gaining in their new drive down the land bridge to the Middle East after they had been blocked in the Mozdok sector and thrown back in the battle for Tuapse, on the Black Sea coast, in the northwest Caucasus.

Fighting in primeval, snow-clad forests and on slopes threatened by avalanches, German and Russian ski troops met in sharp skirmishes high in the mountains while caves of horses and donkeys floundered to the front with food and munitions.

Soviet reports said blizzards had been raging in the Caucasus mountains and that bitter cold had now set in. Many German soldiers were said to have been frozen to death in caves.

Difficulties of the campaign
 were emphasized by a Russian dispatch reporting that Red army artillerymen carried their heavy guns 10 miles forward across territory impassable for animals.

In the 66-day-old siege of Stalingrad, the Soviet command admitted that the Germans scored another 200-yard gain in the city's northside factory sector yesterday,
 but declared the Nazis sacrificed 2,000 troops in this limited advance
 —100 dead men for each yard won.

At noon today, Red army headquarters said German infantrymen pressing the attack in the factory district had been repulsed and

Former Student In IOOF Home Joins Up

Disabilities of minority were removed in orders granted Thursday by District Judge Wayne R. Howard for Oddest Beavers, an ex-student of the IOOF Home here, in order that he may enlist in the U.
 S. Air Forces. Beavers has three half-brothers and a full brother now in the army. Two sisters are students in the IOOF Home.

Beavers formerly was a member of the Lxny football club.
 There was no legally appointed guardian for the 20-year-old man
 and both parents are deceased, and this procedure was carried out instead of the customary guardianship route. Jack H. Thompson, assistant criminal district attorney, prepared the papers free of charge.

Beavers' brother is Staff Ser-

gent Neely Beavers, signal corps, Leeville, La.; while his half-brothers are Staff Sergeant J. T. Beavers, 11 Air Corps, Roswell, N. M., follows:

1. For or Against: The amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off state obligations outstanding Sept. 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts thereto.

Turning In Casings To U. S. Government

There have been 260 automobile casings turned over to the local Railway Express company office here Thursday noon in the government campaign to procure excess tires prior to the issuance of gas rationing cards, it was announced. It was stated that ninety per cent of the tires brought in to the express company to be sent to the government have been from the rural sections. Few of the casings have been turned in by

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Bronchitis, acute or chronic, is an inflammatory condition of the mucous membranes lining the bronchial tubes. Even if other medicines have failed you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Chronic bronchitis can develop if your chest cold is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it nicely relieves the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. See that the name Creomulsion is on the bottle and you will get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

THE WAR TODAY CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE

There are many times when one part of the attacking force could surge forward, but must be held back because another has been stalled.

For one section to race ahead while a neighboring section remained behind would break the line and lay it open to flank attacks by the enemy.

Of course any plan is alterable, even in the heat of the conflict if an emergency arises.

First Stage Hardest.

Rommel has achieved much of his success in past engagements by taking advantage of unusual situations. However, the first stages of an offensive like the present against fortified positions are likely to be a job of slow, hard slogging.

General Montgomery's ultimate aim is to maneuver the enemy into such a position that he can make a flank attack. Both of Rommel's flanks are protected—the northern by the Mediterranean and the southern by the great Qattara depression.

Thus Montgomery is endeavoring to widen the wedges which he already has driven in the enemy line, first to draw out Rommel's tanks where they can be blasted with artillery and then to send British tank units swirling through gaps in the axis defenses.

If and when we reach the point where British armored units are able to execute a flank movement we shall get what is likely to be one of the biggest tank battles of the war. Rommel's greatest strength apparently lies in his panzer divisions.

So far as concerns air power, he is much inferior and he also probably has fewer troops by several divisions.

Under the circumstances it seems certain that Hitler will try to send air reinforcements to his desert army. Undoubtedly supplies and troops also are being moved across the Mediterranean both by air transport and by boat.

British and American air forces and the British navy constantly are destroying axis transports, but it would be foolish to believe that the axis isn't getting considerable reinforcement across.

Rommel's lengthy supply communications are a great handicap for him and the allied air forces are taking full advantage of his crawling transport trains along the military highway which skirts the sea. Montgomery, on the other hand, has the advantage of short lines at present.

This position will alter, however, if the British offensive forces are able to break through the axis retreat. Rommel's communications will begin to shorten and Montgomery's will lengthen.

Because of this and because Rommel is receiving reinforcements, the British commander may be expected to try to force a quick decision. Montgomery's game is to get Rommel quickly.

STEVENSON STILL DISLIKES GASOLINE RATIONING PLAN

AUSTIN, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Governor Coke Stevenson said today he believed that under gasoline rationing "every person should have the right to determine what he considers essential business" in applying for gallons.

"I am in favor of everybody in Texas having all the gasoline needed for the efficient operation of all business," Stevenson said, commenting on his conference yesterday with Max L. McCullough of Dallas, regional director of the Office of Price Administration.

McCullough predicted that Texas will receive more B and C rationing cards in proportion to population than smaller states.

Stevenson would not comment further in regard to his talks with McCullough, except to say that the question of what constituted "luxury driving" was thoroughly discussed.

CHARLES POTEETE DIED HENDERSON; BURIAL NEAR HERE

Charles Poteete died at his home at Henderson Wednesday night. Funeral services were held from the Petty's Chapel church Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial was in the Petty's Chapel cemetery.

Surviving are his wife and two sons, A. M. Poteete and Herron Poteete.

Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Local DAR Will Sponsor Drive For Blood Plasma Here

Every citizen in the nation today is interested in the drive to secure blood plasma for aiding men in our armed forces all over the nation and enabling thousands of lives to be saved.

The James Blair Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is sponsoring the blood plasma project in this county and are asking the cooperation of all. While it is impossible under the present set-up to procure the blood here, those wishing to have a part in the project may contribute to a fund which makes the packaging and securing of the blood possible. The blood is given voluntarily but there is a great deal of expense in classifying it, processing it and getting it to the armed forces.

The Junior D. A. R. group of the local chapter will sponsor a book review here Saturday afternoon, Oct. 31, at Kinsloe House, proceeds of which will go to the Blood Plasma project.

Mrs. Roscoe Bates of Dallas will review Tolstoy's "War and Peace." The public is cordially invited to attend. Tickets will be 50 cents and may be secured by calling Mrs. R. L. Wheelock, Jr., Mrs. A. B. Horn or Mrs. Roy Love.

Joe E. Daniel
County Treasurer, will make an informal address over Radio Station KAND at 7:30 P. M., Friday, Oct. 30th. Mr. Daniel's talk will be of vital interest to every voter and taxpayer of Navarro county. Please hear him.

MOBILIZATION OF MANPOWER PROGRAM OUT FOR PRESENT

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The administration was reported reliably today to have decided to sidetrack indefinitely proposals for the compulsory mobilization of manpower.

Congressional leaders, who had expected shortly after next Tuesday's elections to receive a pattern from which legislation could be cut to fit the nation's workers into the wartime production machine, were said to have been informed that no White House recommendation will be forthcoming for some time.

In the absence of such a recommendation, sponsors conceded privately it would be next to impossible to obtain action on a half dozen or more manpower bills pending before congressional committees.

However, Senator Hill (D-Ala.), author of a bill that would give President Roosevelt broad authority to say where a man or woman should work, told reporters he would press for speedy action by the senate military committee on his and several other measures.

"I think it is inevitable that we are going to have legislation which will mobilize all of our citizens for the war effort and which will direct them into the job they can do best," Hill said. "This can be done on a voluntary basis for the most part, but there must be machinery to enforce it upon those who won't make any sacrifices to win the war."

COTTON POISONING PAYS GOOD DIVIDEND ACCORDING TO CHECK

188 pounds more seed cotton per acre was the pay-off for poisoning cotton insects on a demonstration field of young cotton, according to Lewis David of the Pickett community.

An unpoisoned check plot of one acre yielded 385 pounds, while the poisoned cotton turned out 554 pounds per acre. Cost of insecticides per acre was $4.14 and $2.00 per acre for cost of application. The gross value of the gain per acre, figured both lint and seed was $15.37 per acre, leaving a net profit of $9.23 per acre. This field was late June cotton, infested with fleas, weevil and bollworm, necessitating the application of more poison than is ordinarily needed for adequate control.

According to County Agent H. C. Robinson, all of David's cotton crop was dusted as needed. Older cotton was not so heavily infested, but David says that he estimates the insect control work was worth an average of $6.00 per acre over the entire crop.

No change in the food stamp program in Navarro county for families participating in November will be made, Eldred McKinnon, area supervisor, Agricultural Marketing Administration, said Wednesday.

The November list includes fresh apples, all fresh vegetables, including Irish and sweet potatoes, shell eggs, corn meal, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour and whole wheat (Graham) flour.

Pickett P.T.A. Met Tuesday Afternoon

The Pickett Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday afternoon at the school in business session. Plans were outlined for the year's work and programs.

Seven members attended. The next meeting will be held on the last Tuesday in November.

Personal

The many friends of Mose Wells will regret to learn that he is ill and is a patient in the P. and S. Hospital.

Of interest to friends and relatives is the information that Leatrice McDaniel, former Richland student, who is now attending school in Fort Arthur, is doing nicely there. Miss McDaniel won the highest honor in her class on her theme, "Respect for the Flag," recently.
